Ladies Auxiliary of K.O.C.

Greetings, Ladies!

While reading and contemplating on an article on Catholic Women of Today, I thought of you Ladies. It reads "While prayer is the life of her soul, service gives meaning to her life. Her life is an act of service that gives comfort to those who are hurting, strength to those who are oppressed and hope to those in need." "Through her quiet leadership she empowers other women and forges Sisterhood in the Community and in the Church." "The Catholic woman in the world today makes a difference. She betters humanity through her faith relationships and work."

Congratulations to Lady of the Month Pat Bitz. Pat is an active member of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Nurses Ministry. Pat Has volunteered her time for the upcoming Baby Shower Chairperson. As you know, the Knights donated the Defibrillator and now it's time to replace certain parts due to expiration dates and the battery. Pat donated a large amount of money for these defibrillator replacements. Pat checks the defibrillator frequently and it's box contents to keep all in working order. Pat also helped teach a review course for the CPR-AED certified card holders of the Parish and writes health articles for the bulletin.

THANKS, PAT, FOR ALL YOU DO!

Yours in Christ, Pat Kippes
