HAPPY NEW YEAR, may you be healthy, wealthy and wise.

Congratulations to our Lady of the Month for November – Patti Kaltinger! Patti is a long time member of the Auxiliary and is Hospitality Chair for this year. She is known as our own “Martha Stewart”. Always ready with the decorations and little touches that make our events so special.

I am saddened to announce that Darlyne Whyte passed in late December. Our condolences go out to her family and many friends.

It's the New Year, time for those Resolutions

Should be realistic, attainable with plans for implementation and routinely reevaluated, So.. here goes.

KEEP CHRIST FIRST – Start the day with hope, love & prayer. End the day with prayer and thanksgiving.

KEEP CHRIST IN MIND throughout the day - Allow him into our hearts and minds to influence our choices.

BE THANKFUL that Christ is part of our lives. Give thanks for everyday blessings.

EVANGELIZE – Be proud to be Catholic. Speak of Christ without fear or shame. Be bold about your faith. Embrace humanity.

CENTERED ON THE EUCHARIST – It's not just about living a Christian life, but being there, sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ. Sharing this special event with our Catholic Community. As Father Ted said, commit 52 hours a year to the Eucharist.

GROW OUR LADIES AUXILIARY – in numbers, but more so in the way we honor our faith.

Charity – Giving, Sharing, Sacrificing for others.

Patriotism - Support our troops, our democratic way of life.

Fraternity - Support one another. And ENJOY one another!

And personally:

Say THANK YOU more often. (Write more Thank You notes & more promptly) (Buy thank you notes from Current.com to support our treasury)

Eat healthy/eat less. (Track food intake on FitDay.com)

Walk more (walk when first get up in the morning/before Bill is out of bed).

Learn something new every day. (More classes, read more, attend more lectures)

Get organized. (Help)

Keep a cleaner house. (Help)

Stop procrastinating. (Establish the habit of “Doing it NOW” or was that “Just DO it”?).

Yours in Christ, Johna Brand, President

& Carol Zaehler
