April Showers, Means May Flowers?

The word is that the Lenten Suppers are a big success. Suppers were conceived to encourage the faithful to participate in Stations of the Cross. But what we also hear is that many have enjoyed the feeling of community engendered by the opportunity to socialize. A few intrepid souls partook of supper, attended Stations of the Cross and then returned to Kyle Hall for coffee and dessert. What a Great Evening. And no dirty dishes. It was great learning experience for all the volunteers also. We learned organization, timing, preparation and learned ways to avoid waste. What I enjoyed so much, were all the smiling faces.

AND then there was the March 18th Feast of Saint Joseph Table. Another showcase event for the Ladies Auxiliary.

AND then there was the Palm Sunday Breakfast and Bake Sale!

Congratulations to our March "Lady of the Month"

Sandy Dudzik!

Sandy was cochair of the 2012 Feast of St Joseph. Was our founding President in 2005? Then President twice again. She has been Newsletter editor and steadfast supporter of the Ladies Auxiliary for all these years. Thank you, Sandy, for all you do.

Yours in Christ, Johna Brand, President

Our thanks go out to all the Ladies who volunteered at the Lenten suppers.
